Dear Graham,

Thanks so much for your invitation to speak at the commissioning ceremony for the JOHN HANCOCK.
I accept with alacrity.

Pat and I both look forward to seeing "her"
ship begin its active service career.

Again, many thanks.

Yours,

Dear Stan:

On behalf of the United States Navy, I am pleased to extend a cordial invitation to you to act as the principal speaker at the commissioning ceremony of the destroyer JOHN HANCOCK (DD-981), at the Ingalls Shipbuilding Division of Litton Industries, Pascagoula, Mississippi, on Saturday, March 10, 1979.

I am sure this will be a most memorable day for all of us, and the beginning of a long and distinguished career of service to the Navy for the ship which now enjoys your wife's sponsorship.

I hope you will be able to participate in making the ceremony a significant and successful one.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

W. Graham Claytor, Jr.
